

Current Displays: We have an ongoing display books that connect with the three books in the Experience a Life through Untold Stories book discussion series. Starting the week of November 6, there will also be a Books We Are Thankful For display that will feature books that the staff recommends and are thankful for. We welcome patrons to submit their own recommendations on slips of paper provided by the display. Starting around November 15, there will be a seasonal display of magazines that will give ideas for holiday crafts and cooking.

Art Display in Reference Room: We are pleased to have the artwork of local artist Sandra Pealer in our reference room September through November.

Current Glass Case Displays: 2018 marks the 80th Anniversary of Norway Memorial Library so we will feature an ongoing display of library artifacts. In the other case, there will be a display of Portland Glass after November 7. This collection belongs to the library and would make an elegant addition to any holiday table.

Upcoming Programs

Thursdays 6:30-7:30 pm: Experience a Life through Untold Stories Book Discussion series:

October 25: The Aviator's Wife by Melanie Benjamin

Anne Morrow, a shy college senior marries global celebrity Colonel Charles Lindbergh. In the years that follow, Anne becomes the first licensed female glider pilot in the United States. But despite this and other major achievements, she is viewed merely as the aviator's wife. The fairy-tale life she once longed for will bring heartbreak and hardships, ultimately pushing her to reconcile her need for love and her desire for independence, and to embrace, at last, life's infinite possibilities for change and happiness.

November 8: Fates and Traitors by Jennifer Chiaverini

This riveting tale follows the notorious John Wilkes Booth and the four women who kept his perilous confidence. Lost to history until now is the story of the four women whom he loved and who loved him in return. Fates and Traitors brings to life pivotal actors—some willing, others unwitting—who made an indelible mark on the history of our nation.

November 29: The Women in the Castle by Jessica Shattuck

Amid the ashes of Nazi Germany's defeat, this story offers a fresh perspective on one of the most tumultuous periods in history and explores what it means to survive, love, and, ultimately, to forgive in the wake of unimaginable hardship.
