

December Displays: Happy Holidays! December brings the holidays so we have a Happy Holiday Hints display. There will be books that should be interesting and helpful whether one celebrates Christmas, Hanukkah, or Kwanzaa. Winter Book Bingo begins December 1 so there will be a display on ideas to help complete bingo squares. We also have our ongoing display of new fiction for 2017. Our two glass case displays feature a clock collection generously loaned to us by John Ellis which will be up through the New Year and a display on Mollycoddett Chorus memorabilia will be up through January.

Winter Book Bingo begins December 1 and will end March 19, 2018:

Get over the winter blahs with some winter book bingo! Participants will read and complete a horizontal, vertical, or diagonal line of five squares to be entered in the drawing to win a bingo prize. Pick up a Winter Book Bingo card and a packet of hot cocoa mix while supplies last at the library's information desk. For book suggestions to help complete the challenge, participants are invited to a book chat on Thursday, January 11 at 6:30 pm. Deadline for bingo sheets is March 19 at 5:00 with drawing on March 21. If you complete a blackout card and enter into our drawing you could win a gift certificate to Café Nomad. If you do a regular bingo card, you could be entered into a drawing for a book of your choosing from our selection and a travel mug. Winners will be notified by phone.
